
LEGISLATION FOR THE PROFESSION

BY
ROBERT H. MONTGOMERY,

PROFESSOR OF ACCOUNTING COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK

AND A MEMBER OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

ROBERT HIESTER MONTGOMERY.

Robert Hiester Montgomery, lawyer, accountant; born Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania, September 21, 1872; son of Thomas and Annie (Kline) Montgomery; educated public schools and night schools; married Elizabeth Adams Shaw, of New York City, November 5, 1904.

Partner Heins, Whelen, Lybrand & Co., accountants, 1896—7, partner Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, 1898 to date; admitted to bar, Philadelphia, 1902, New York, 1904; instructor economics, 1912—14, asst. professor income tax procedure, 1924, Columbia University.

Member American Bar Association, New York County Lawyers' Association, American Economic Association, Academy of Political Science, National Economics League, American Institute of Accountants; President, American Association of Public Accountants, 1912—1924, New-York State Society of Certified Public Accountants. Republican. Methodist. Mason.

Author: Income Tax Procedure, 1917—1926; Excess Profits Tax Procedure 1920—1921; Excess Profits, Estate, Gift. Capital Stock Tax Procedure, 1926; New York State Income Tax Procedure, 1921; Auditing Theory & Practice; Auditing Principles; Financial Handbook.

Offices: 110 William Street, New York City; 385 Madison Avenue, New York City.
